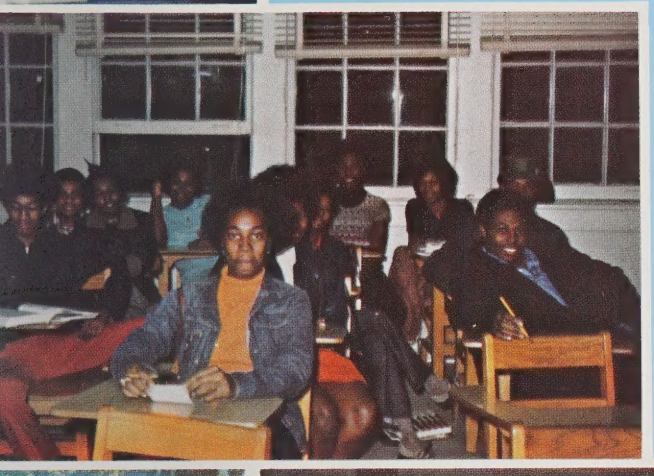
Our PATTERNS of life today are a result of what we learned yesterday and what we hope and plan for tomorrow. It's the past and the future, the old and the new, the good and the bad, fun and study - together weaving the pattern of school.

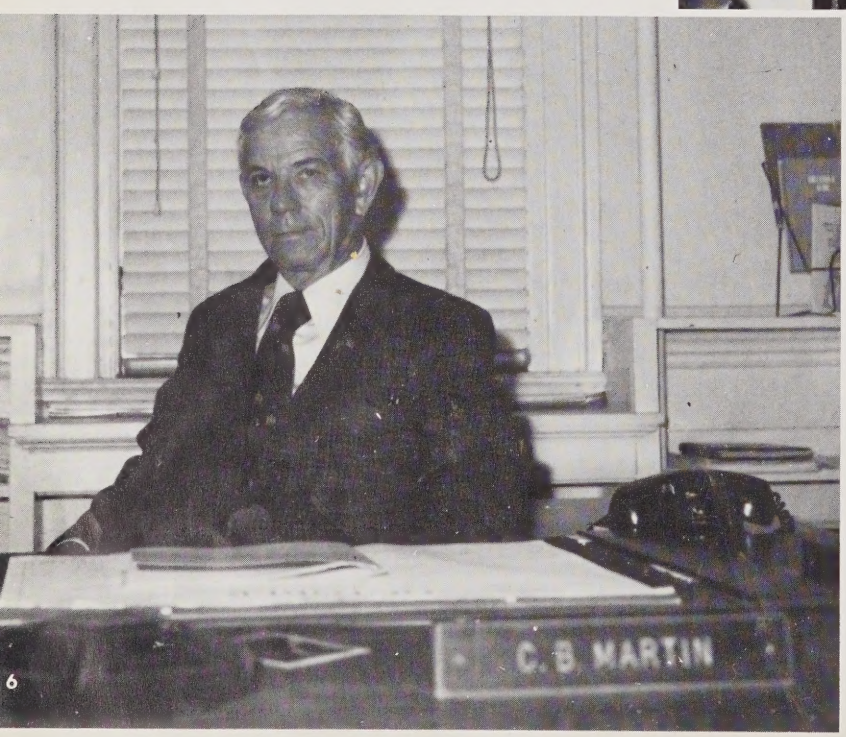
Some think of school as a home away from home, but to all it is an institution of study. For some it is a place to have fun, and for others it is a place where romance begins. It is a place to renew old friendships and add new friends. It is a place where we belong to a group or choose to be alone.

School days have a pattern of education and recreation based on what each individual chooses for himself.



Our principal, Mr. E. V. Meadows, has diligently worked in his two years with us to better Tarboro Senior High.

Mr. Reginald Moss, assistant principal, is a busy man who always finds time to talk with students and to give them advice.



Superintendent of Tarboro City Schools, Mr. C. B. Martin, successfully carries out his administrative duties.

Our school board continually works for the improvement of our school system. Members are Mr. B. W. Brock; Dr. T. S. Fleming; Mrs. John I. Brooks; Mr. W. E. Marshall, Chairman; Dr. Howard S. Hussey; and Mrs. Julia Hammonds.

Miss Grace Whitehurst, Tarboro Senior High guidance counselor, turns confused thoughts in the right direction.

Mrs. Carolyn House, our new secretary, is an essential person at Tarboro Senior High.

Mrs. Irene Alford, Mrs. Edna Johnson, and Mrs. Barbara Taylor are hard-working aides in our school.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, dietician, provides nutritional meals for the students.

To Eva Jones, Louise Knight, Molly Bridgers, and Lilly Willis falls the job of keeping hungry students fed. Ruby Wooten, another worker, is not pictured.

Other busy people at TSH are the maids, Julia Andrews and Frances Pettaway.

William Jenkins

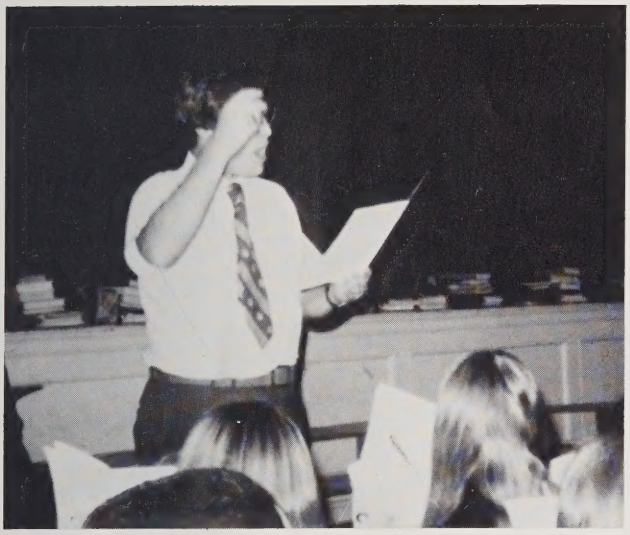
and Jerry McDowell are two workers with little time to spare.

These are just some of the bus drivers who "rise early" and "work late" for the school.

A. Lloyd Owens

Dedication



A remarkable person is many things, this teacher excells especially in getting along well with his students. Class time is fun, but the work gets done. Each student progresses and is able to feel proud of what is accomplished. By his hard work, he has classes of which most students want to be a part. These are just some of the reasons that the 1973 TAR-BO-RAH staff dedicates this yearbook to the ensemble and choral music teacher, Mr. A. Lloyd Owens.

"The path up and down is

George Henry smiles about THAT last ball game ...

Lee Dew has his "story" prepared for Mr. Moss.

Jackie Riley tries to look her best!

The best thing about a pep rally is leaving school five minutes early.

all and the same."

$$= 32a^5 - 80a^4b + 80a^3b^2 - 40a^2b^3 + 10ab^4 - b^5$$

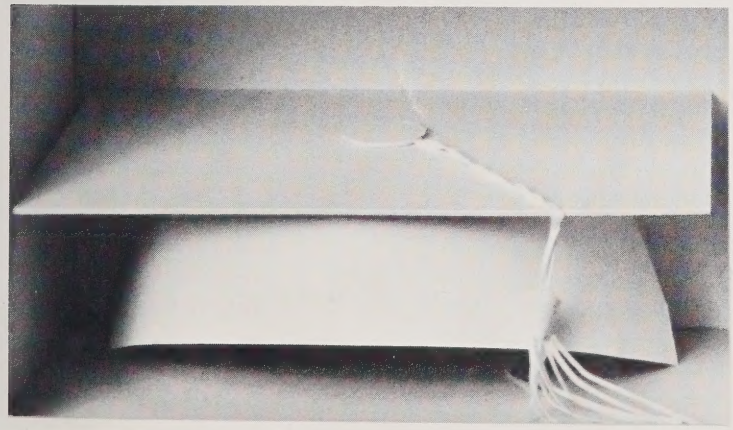
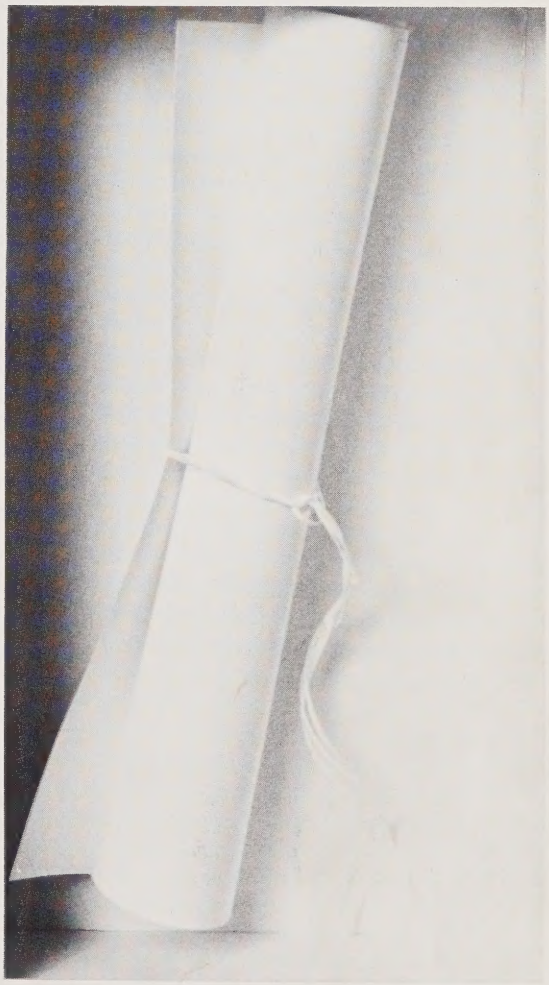
SENIORS





Outstanding Seniors

Nora Ruth Thomas

Nora is a small, quiet girl of only five feet. She is usually happy and smiling. She sees good in all people, and she excels in all that she attempts. Nora is known for being a studious and industrious senior.

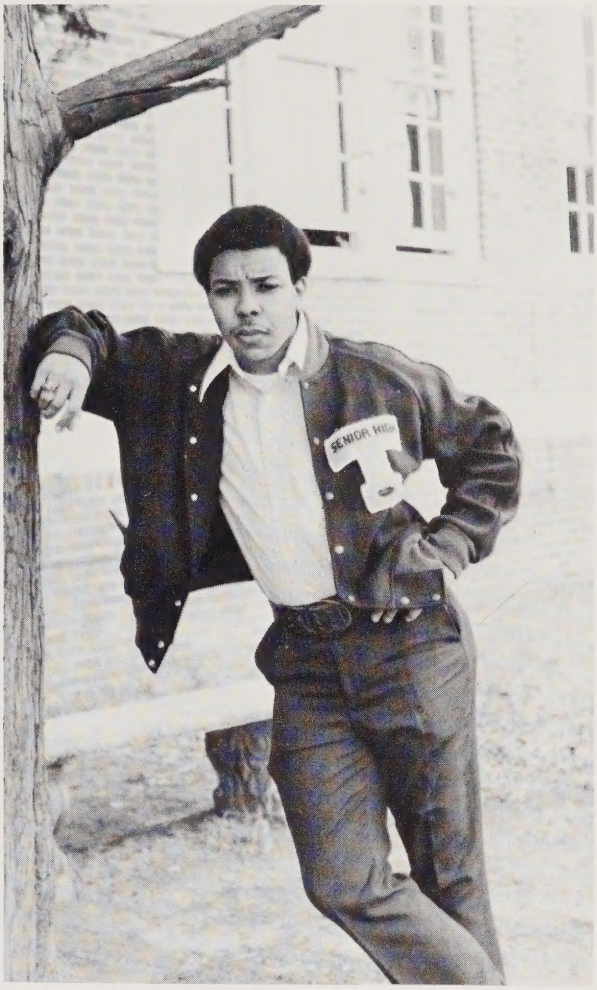
Hal Andrew Thorne

Hal is known as a leader, an athlete, and a scholar. His big, warm heart and his friendly smile help to prove that "Best All-Around" fits him. Not only is he an intelligent young man, but he is dedicated to high ideals.

Outstanding Seniors

Paul Mc Cabe Godfrey, Jr.

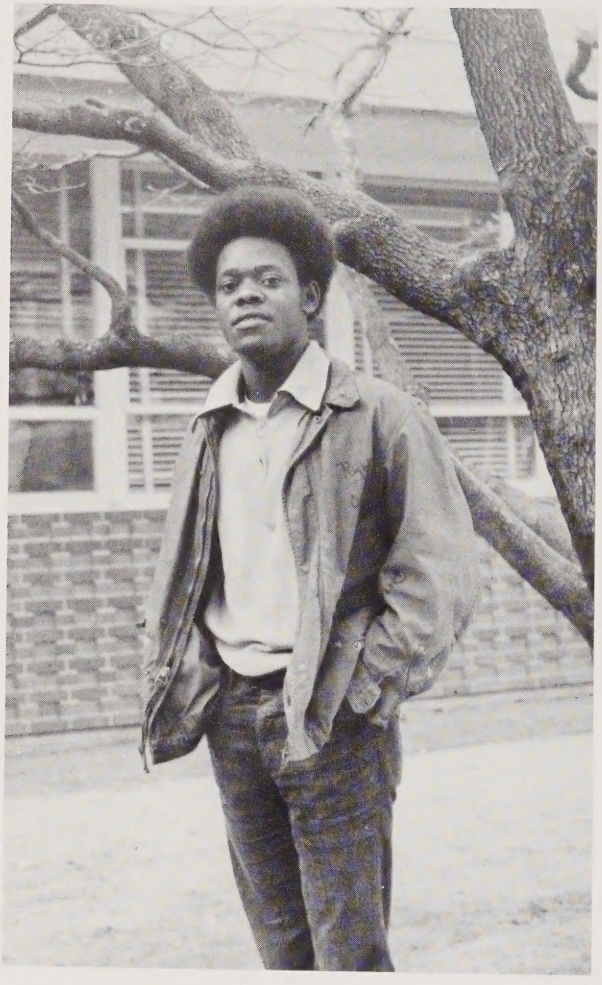
Mac has always been one to work diligently in athletics, school organizations, and studies. He has contributed much to his community through his work as an Eagle Scout. A friendly, co-operative attitude has won for him the admiration of his classmates.



Michael René Hart

Mike could be compared to "a locomotive a huffing and a puffing down the hall with knowledge of physics, among other things, flowing out of both ears, like steam rising on a cold winter's day." A leader and an athlete, Mike is noted for his likeable, easy-going personality.

Outstanding Seniors



Earl Leroy Hyman

Earl is a true leader in many school and community activities. He is an easy-speaking, well-mannered young man, whom some describe as "well-put-together" and "cool." He shows equality to all whom he knows and seldom loses his temper.

Susan Belle Kent

In contrast to red hair, which to some indicates hot temper, Sue Belle is an easy-going, congenial senior. Her musical laughter can often be heard among her classmates as she appreciates their wit or shares her own humor. For the time-consuming work on the Tar-borah, she is recognized.

Outstanding Seniors

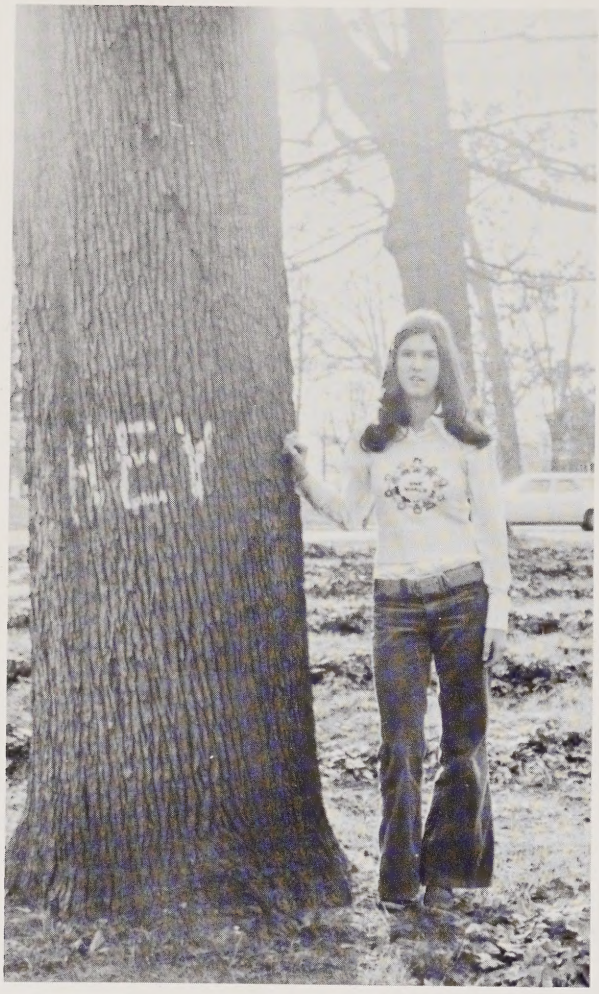
Cynthia Ann Knight

Walking with a slight limp because of an accident, Cynthia never slows down - actively participating in many activities, leading JMHA, showing concern for the betterment of school and society. This year's Tar-bo-rah co-editor can best be described as busy, enthusiastic, and talented!

James Arthur Lyons

James has a nice, pleasing personality. Not only is he poised, but he is always smiling and happy. A letterman in both track and football, "Cookie," as he is called by many, is also talented in music. Playing the piano and singing are two of his many talents.

Outstanding Seniors



Lois Ann Pate

When one thinks of laughter, he might think of Lois Ann, who is hardly ever seen without a sincere smile on her face. Even in tense moments, she finds something to smile about. She is intelligent and determined to do what is right. Her sense of responsibility should help her go far in life.

Jarvis Earl Pettaway

Jarvis, a three-sport athlete and a star in both track and football, is quick witted, charming, and friendly. To know him is to like him, for he is always concerned for his fellowman. His sense of humor shines out at all times, and he also appreciates others' humor. When one thinks of sports at TSH, he thinks of Jarvis.

Outstanding Seniors

Mary Ellen Sexton

Leadership is just one of the qualities which has won Ellen the admiration of her fellow students. As editor of the VIKING PRESS, she displays her many talents. Her friendly, pleasant nature and other assets make her worthy of the title of "Outstanding Senior."

Charles Lester Teal

Charles is rather private as far as thought is concerned, but his close friends know his unsurpassed wit and quick smile and find him an extremely likeable person. Hard work in school, academically, and also as co-business manager of the annual has brought Charles to the front as "Outstanding Senior."

Think of all the names

Of people you have known.

Now they're gone -

Like the four winds

They have blown.

In my life there were friends

I said I'd keep,

But through the years

I've been a shepherd losing sheep.

I'm wondering where

Do all the friends go.

Lost in years,

Circumstances make it so.

Remembering back

To long-gone happy days,

Never find them,

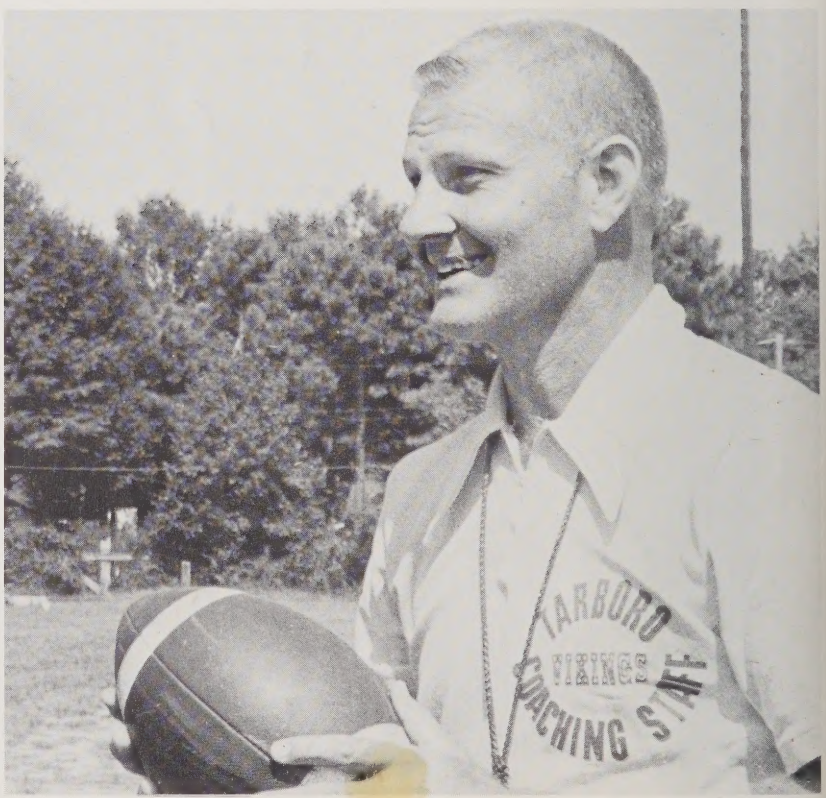
1972 Viking Football

In the last game of the season, which ended their high-school careers, all seniors witnessed the coin toss.

The Viking football team posted a 6-3-1 record under new Head Coach John Grady and completed the season in second place in the conference.

The team, featuring an unyielding defense and a sporadic, new veer-offense, caused by several injured players, had great talent in its seasoned veterans, placing seven on the All-Conference squad and two on the All-East team.



Head Coach John Grady

The 1972-73 Viking basketball team did not have a very successful year, posting a 7-12 record, finishing sixth in the conference. The squad featured a good defense and excellent rebounding. It proved it could win by winning over top teams in the conference and by outplaying teams to whom it lost. Coach Moss said his team had the potential to be number one, but it could not keep its composure in tense situations, causing simple mistakes which badly hurt. Coach Moss has a bright outlook for next year. He will have his leading shooter returning, two top rebounders returning, and a lot of depth rising from the J. V. squad.

"Ponce" goes up for two points.

Jarbo sets up for the defense.

The corner jump shot was very effective for the Vikings.

Mr. Hussey

The head coach of the winning Junior High football team and the assistant principal at C. B. Martin Junior High, Mr. Hoarce Hussey added invaluable assistance to the high school athletics program. His help and aid are appreciated by the athletes. TSH student body recognizes his contributions to the betterment of athletics.

Mr. Mosely

Mr. Archie Mosely, Junior High basketball coach and physical education teacher, has also aided the TSH program of athletics, being involved in all aspects from the ground up. His optimism and cheerfulness inspire both athletes and students. His efforts at the Junior High level result in athletes with a keener sense of competition and sportsmanship.

Coach Richard Scott

Anderson waits for some action.

Batter, up!

The TSH baseball team ended with a 7-9 overall record. Lack of experience and the need for more substitutes created many problems for the team; however, Sherman Palmer did make All-Conference. Coach Scott feels that the '73 team will be much more experienced and improved. He hopes that the record will be reversed.

J. Parrish has high hopes of a hit.

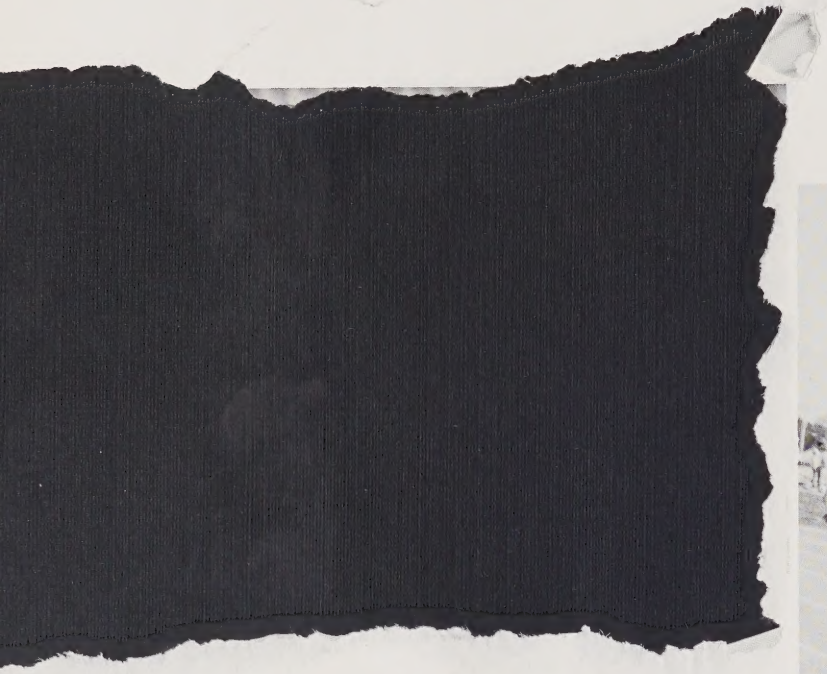
Coach James Brett

Peters' determined effort pays off.

Coach Jim Brett's track team turned out some stars in the '72 season. The team ended up with several all-conferencers, plus many with sectional, regional, and state honors. The 880 Relay Team, consisting of Carter Suggs, Alton Tillery, Jarvis Pettaway, and Ray Howard, placed first in the Southeastern Regional Junior Olympics meet. Charles Spain and Brookes Peters set conference records in their fields. Suggs and Howard traveled to Spokane, Washington, for the National Junior Olympics. A team equal in caliber could spring up in '73 with more participation.

All-Conference Charles Spain set a record in shot put.



C. Suggs finishes the 100 in first as usual.

J. Pettaway and a Washington player get ready for the relays as Ray Howard looks on.

Upon receiving the baton, R. Howard pours on the speed.
